More or Less Funny

People never get a chance to hear the best things that are said about them. They are dead then.

Love, it is said, will smooth the way. We have heard of people completely disgusted with each other at first yet they are now happily married—to somebody else.

Young men should not be easily discouraged if a girl makes a fool of him. Some other girl would have probably done it if she didn't.

Is it not usually considered healthy to sit up late nights but we have just heard of a fellow that gained 125 pounds by doing so. The wedding will occur in the near future.

They say two girls kissing each other are more like the Christian emblem than anything else. They are doing unto each other as they would that all men should do unto them.

A country editor often gets requests like the following and generally he is chump enough to do it: "Please send a few copies of the paper containing the obituary of my aunt. Also publish the enclosed clipping of the marriage of my niece in Texas. And I wish you would please mention in your local column if it does not cost anything, that I have two bull calves for sale. Also put in a 'card of thanks'. And if my subscription is out please stop the paper. Times are too hard to waste money on newspapers." Oh, boy!

Take your cream and eggs to F. W. Watkinson at Swifts Cream Station, Irma, and sell for spot cash.

GIVE YOUR COUNTRY A LEG UP-- SAVE!

Canadian patriotism demands the practice of thrift by all her sons. The men who are holding the lines at home are they who are making it easy for the business of the country to go on with little jar to its mechanism. The steady pulling together of all citizens in the production of goods and in the conservation of all field crops marks the thrifty nation. Saving on the part of our citizens is going to be the greatest insurance we will have in Canada against a period of depression after the war. The combined capital of the individuals who make the country will form a fund of sufficient power to drive business along in a most satisfying way in spite of the prevailing hard times of such a period.

The saving man is therefore a real patriot. He has Canada's interests fundamentally at heart. May his tribe increase in these days when wealth is piling under the spur of war-time efforts. Save because it hits both ways. It is a high form of patriotism. And it gives one's country a leg up in a critical time. Put by that extra dollar now. The long procession of thrifty dollars will make a line that will not waver—Hindenburg or no Hindenburg.

Left For The East.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hill left Irma for Calgary and Banff on their way home to Natrick, Mass. after spending three weeks with his brother C. T. Hill. After travelling by auto from the C.P.R. to the C.N.R. and as far west as Edmonton, Mr. Hill expressed himself as well satisfied with the Irma district, it being in his estimation the pick of the country travelled over with probably the exception of the Clover Bar district.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill were highly pleased with the way they were entertained by the people of the Irma district and indicated that their next vacation would be spent with their friends at Irma.

Campaign for Army Huts.

The Knights of Columbus are holding a campaign week in which they hope to raise $500,000, with which to maintain Army Huts for the boys at the front. C. Hill and Jas. Donaghy are collecting south of the coulee. R. Golding and W. H. Kent east of Clark Manor. The collectors for other districts have not been appointed yet. H. W. Love of the Co-op will receive subscriptions from any wishing to contribute.

Have you seen the new style Mackinac coats yet? The Co-op have them now. The Co-op have sweaters coats for Men and Boys, prices ranging from $2.25 to $9.50.

Summary of the War News

Sept. 23rd, 1918.—The striking defeats of the Turks in Palestine and of the Bulgars in Macedonia were the outstanding war events of the past week. The deadlock of many months on the Macedonian front has been broken. The captures of positions, territory, prisoners and guns by the Serbians and French at Monastir indicates either that German support has been withdrawn from Bulgaria or that the Bulgarian army has become war weary, or possibly both. The smashing victory and advance of the British in Palestine indicates like conditions in regard to the Turks. Together they mean that the German retreats on the French and Belgian fronts are already having far reaching effects.

There has been terrific fighting both by British and French, with small but important gains of ground and position. Roughly the Germans are back to their lines held on the 21st of March last on all fronts, except that they still hold Armentieres and Messines Ridge in the Flanders salient and the Chemin des Dames on the Aisne front.

They have been driven from their March front on the Droocourt-Quant switch line at the northern angle of what was the Amiens salient and from the St. Mihiel salient, with heavy losses of men and material in both cases.

During the past week the final positions at the base of the Amiens salient in front of the Hindenburg line have been taken in fierce fighting and at one point near the centre of the late salient it would appear that a portion of the main fortified line between Bellenglise and Bellicourt has passed into British hands.

The French are fighting their way forward in face of the strongest opposition at the angle of the German line north of Soissons. Their objective is the Forest of St. Gobain, which lies between Laon and Le Fere, and is now, in fact, the forward position and strongest defence of the German front.

The American army is in force between Verdun and Metz, with Metz under the fire of their long range guns. The American papers forecast operations by their army on German territory. The victory of St. Mihiel cannot fail to be followed up in due course by other important advances.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—British troops in their drive north through Palestine already have counted 18,000 Turkish prisoners and have collected 120 guns, according to an official statement given out this evening by the British war office. The text of the statement follows:

"By nine o'clock on Saturday night on our left wing the infantry about Birefur had reached the line, Beitdeje-Samaria-Birefur, shepherding the enemy on the west of Jerusalem-Nabulus road into the arms of our cavalry operating northward from Jenin and Beisan.

Other enemy columns vainly attempted to escape into the Jordan valley in the direction of Jisr-ed-Damer, which still is held by us. These columns suffered severely from our air-craft, which constantly harassed them with bombs and machine guns flying from low altitudes.

In the vicinity of Lake Tiberias our cavalry detachments held Nazareth and the rail and road passages over the Jordan at Jisr-ed-Damer.

Already 18,000 prisoners have been captured and 120 guns collected."

Sugar Famine Threatened Here Orders Refused; No Sugar on Way

Edmonton is face to face with a sugar famine at the present time. The B. C. Sugar Refineries branch in the city which supplies all Edmonton has stopped taking orders for delivery, and now has five or six tons on order which it is impossible to deliver. No sugar is on the way from the east at present, it is said.

At the present time it is estimated that there is not more than four or five tons in the hands of the city retailers, and this divided among from fifty to sixty thousand population does not mean a very large amount per capita.

The British Columbia sugar refineries furnish the entire supply in Alberta, and as retailers and wholesalers do not keep more than a week's supply on hand the shortage will soon become acute. Unless there is a shipment next week the city grocers will be entirely without sugar for further sales.

Team Wished on Bruce.

The provincial police are busy investigating the mysterious donation of a horse and buggy to the town of Bruce, Alta.

About two months ago an unknown man drove into the livery barn of W. H. Chiswell in Bruce and left a horse and buggy there, saying he would return for them in the course of an hour. He has not yet returned and the livery barn still possesses the outfit. The owner of the barn getting tired of feeding the horse and becoming doubtful of ever seeing the supposed owner again or of receiving any remuneration has notified the provincial police of the incident.

Up to the present the police have not been informed of any theft of horse or buggy from any part of the country, but they surmise that the man may have been making his getaway and used the outfit until it became of no more service to him.

The provincial police request the public to communicate with them should anyone have knowledge of the theft of horse and buggy.

Current Comment.

Many good yields of oats are being reported over the Rosebud territory east of Calgary. For a time it was thought to be a total failure but late rains worked wonders with the rich soil.

Heavy rains are reported from Calgary, High River, Nanton and Lethbridge for last Sunday and Monday. Some assurance of summer fallow wheat for those sections for next season.

In this day of many restrictions the man with a saving sense of humor may, by relieving the tension a bit, do his fellows a real service. In our estimation the fellow who wrote the sign in a popular restaurant deserves a medal. It reads: "Sugar is scarce. Take what you can use, but stir like Hell for we don't mind the noise."

The Market Examiner states that the last thirteen miles of his branch will be graded by W. A. Dutton, completing the grade from Hanna south to the Red Deer river. The Examiner suggests that steel released from the Goose-Lake Calgary line by the relaying of heavier rails on that road will be used south of Hanna and that some work might be done this fall. This new branch opens up a wheat and cattle country of great dimensions and has long been needed.

Is the church in the community anything to you? We are in a period of transition. A goodly number are not willing to think of the denominational differences that have worked jealousy and faction in the past and yet have not a place for the church without these, while our church has a denominational connection, which at present is necessary for the larger conquests, as a community we ought to unite on the things the church stands for—a standard of right and truth, of love and fellowship, of reverence and worship, and make true religion to abound in our midst. Rally Day is a call to the community to come together for these purposes. The object of the day is to call the community to emphasize its belief in the God and Father of all and to encourage and fit for such service as is demanded in our day all who come under the church influence. Can you help.

Sunday Services.

Thieves Operating Again

Saturday night at about 11 o'clock some sneak thieves visited the barn of Victor Larson north of Irma and took all the harness hanging in the barn. Mr. Larson saw the car coming from the north and saw it stop near the barn but as the lights were out he thought it was some one fixing the engine. Next morning he missed the harness.

CANADA MAY BE THE INTERPRETER FOR AMERICA AND GREAT BRITAIN

WAR HAS BROUGHT HER MANY RESPONSIBILITIES

The Great and Wonderful Part Which She Can Play In the Consolidation Of the English Speaking Peoples Is Not Only
Her Opportunity But Her Privilege

That Canada, his own country, has a great and wonderful opportunity to assist in the consolidation of the English-speaking races by acting as the interpreter of England to the United States, and vice versa, is the conviction of a certain English soldier, who is soon to sail for America on a governmental mission.

He is Lieutenant Colonel Sir Campbell Stuart, a native of Montreal, and one of the new knights of the British empire. That is his first visit to the United States since the beginning of the war, for he was assistant military attache at the British embassy in Washington from 1914 to 1917, and in the March of last year and military attache at the British legation in New York. His first British war mission which visited our country in the following June. At present Sir Campbell, who received his knighthood in January, is visiting the Dominion headquarters in the quarters of the British war mission to the United States at Crewe house in Curzon street. A lieutenant-colonel in the Canadian army, he is also a member of the Order of St. John, having recruited the 1st Battalion of the Duchess of Connaught's Own Irish Canadian Rangers, which has performed such gallant service in the war.

While in the United States and in Canada during his coming trip, Sir Campbell will undoubtedly give voice to the faith which he holds regarding the part which the Dominion may we can say without egotism that she has taken full advantage of them. She has taken full advantage of them in particular through the prowess of her troops upon the battlefield and the fact that she has made them in her many war activities other than fighting, immediately identified with the fighting. She is a woman of a province and will leave her a nation's response and has endowed her with many responsibilities. She is a woman of which is the great part she is destined to play in the interpretation of the American spirit to the people of the United States to England. She speaks a tongue half English and half American. She is a woman of the English in most of her characteristics. She is likewise distinct from the great English people of the south.

Canadian who has 3,000 miles to fight a bat's not only for the motherland, but for civilization and for progress, is necessarily no more a common ground. She is an American cousin than the citizen of the United States. She is a woman of part which Canada can play in the consolidation of the English-speaking world. She is a woman of a nation but her privilege. We people of the American and the Englishman, an understanding which has been far too late in coming about, and which once accomplished, must bring permanent peace to the world.

There is no greater role in this world struggle than to be the corner-stone of this alliance, we shall not have entered the war in vain. We shall not have sacrificed our lives, any such thing as propaganda being the United States and Great Britain have no need to have any trust there always will be, mutual understanding, mutual good-will and mutual respect. We shall see the Canadians to see that this condition is permanent, durable and lasting. We shall keep it, and please, we should keep it so.

The gallant soldier who expressed his opinion of the Canadian opportunity and privilege thus eloquently, is the youngest son of the 1st Lie Ernest Joseph, of the 1st Lie Ernest (Jerusalem) of Montreal. He was born in Montreal on July 5, 1885. Sir Joseph was a member of the Order of St. Michael and St. George, and was killed in the Balkans when the peace of Europe was broken and at once plunged into recruiting, with fine results. On the 22nd of the 1st Lie Ernest, in January, 1917, of the Duchess of Connaught's Own Irish Canadian Regiment.

Kindly Say Please!

One of the best stories of General Smith-Dorrien, who is to take the Gibraltar command, is that which he used to tell against himself of an incident during the South African war. An orderly arrived at his quarters one day with important despatches, which he delivered with a verbal message in a language that was rather unconventional for his rank. Smith-Dorrien read the despatches and dismissed the man with a reply that he would be ready to move in two hours. "Ah!" he his rank. Smith-Dorrien read the despatches and dismissed the man with a reply that he would be ready to move in two hours. "All right," he added, "say 'please' the next time you speak to me." The orderly delivered Smith-Dorrien's reply to Kitchener. "What did he say?" he was asked. "He said he would be ready to move in two hours," the soldier answered, "and you would kindly say 'please' the next time you speak to him."

Autocrat and Democrat

The Difference Between Lincoln and the Kaiser

The New York Times shows the difference between the autocrat and the democrat by comparing a letter of condolence which Abraham Lincoln sent to a woman whose five sons had fallen in the Civil War with the manner in which the Kaiser showed his sympathy for a German mother who had lost nine sons in the world's great conflict. Lincoln told the mourning one that all he could do was to thank her in behalf of the Republic her sons had died to save, and to remind her of the pride she had a right to feel who had "laid so costly a sacrifice upon the altar of freedom." The Kaiser, on the other occasion expressed sympathy for the mother's loss and sought to assuage her grief by sending his photograph "with name and autographed signature." The one who was a mad egoist who substituted his own personality for that of the state, while the other thought only of service rendered the Republic in order that "government of the people, by the people, and for the people, might not perish from the earth." It is easy to understand why Americans are in this war, and why it seems impossible that after all is over some Young Peterkin be asking of Old Kaspar, "What the war was all about."

Vacuum Potato Bug Extirminator
Vacuum carpet cleaners make excellent potato bug extirminators. So Sanitary C. Smith of Cincinnati has discovered. "If the vacuum carpet cleaner will pick things off the floor it ought to pick bugs off a potato plant," he reasoned. He attached a long extension feed wire to a lamp socket in the cellar of his home and carried the cleaner to the potato yard potato patch. The current was turned on and in a minute more than one thousand potato bugs had been sucked into the vacuum cleaner's bag.

Canadians as Flyers

Have Adaptability and Initiative—13,408 in Air Force

It is learned that the total number of Canadians in the Royal Air Force is 13,408. This number comprises 1,000 officers seconded from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, 1,640 other ranks discharged from the Canadian Expeditionary Force, 10,603 enlisted in Canada for the R.C.F. and the R.N.A.S., 94 loaned to the R.A.F. for airplane construction, and 150 civilians who came to England at their own expense and enlisted in the air service.

On account of their special adaptability and initiative, Canadians proved to be excellent flying officers. It is understood that no less than 35 per cent. of the actual flying officers in France are Canadians.

The Hercules Powder Company obtained a great quantity of explosives provided they bought no acetone, which is scarce and needed for munitions. Besides acetone, the kelp yields potassium chloride, and new solvents greatly needed in industry.

Conquers Asthma. To be relieved from the terrible suffocating due to asthma is a great thing, but to be safe-guarded for the future is even greater. Not only does Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy bring prompt relief, but it introduces a new era of life. Systematic inhalation of smoke or fumes from the remedy prevents re-attacks and often effects a permanent cure.

Moving a Granite Block

Rolled Eight Miles Over Bad Roads to Railroad

A novel method of transporting a thirty-five ton block of granite to the railroad is described and illustrated in Engineering and Contracting. The quarry from which this granite was taken is situated eight miles from the town of the nearest railroad station. A poor road and weak bridges connected the two. Furthermore, by winding the road in the vicinity capable of handling this weight, so that it was decided that the only practical method of transporting the stone was to roll it to the railroad. This was done by tying small logs to the stone with wire ropes, which were fastened to the protection to the block. The motive power was supplied by an engine mounted on a truck which followed the path of the stone. The block was moved forward by unwrapping a wire rope which had been previously wrapped around the stone. The block was on the drum of the engine. The friction between the block and the rough road prevented it from traveling fast. Several streams were crossed but no unusual difficulty was experienced. When the block was rolled to the railroad it was finished to size seven feet square by ten feet before being placed on the railroad car. Its final resting place is in the Terry Ranger Monument on the capital grounds in Austin, Texas.

Dogs as Waiters

French Army Has Solved Problem of Carrying Food

Trench warfare certainly interferes with the fighters' meals. After capturing the enemy's position in particular, the fighter at a loss to know how he will get his regular rations, for no sooner does the enemy find himself dispossessed from his original trenches than he opens up with an intense barrage fire designed to prevent ammunition and food reaching the new occupants. The French army believes it has solved the problem of carrying food in isolated trenches, in its lunch dogs. Carrying light lunches and coffee, and even cartridges for the men in the first line trenches when the combat is hot and protracted, these splendidly trained dogs are more certain to get through a barrage than men. The equipment of each dog, says a writer in the Scientific American, consists of a sort of a double bag, strapped light over its body, and provided with numerous pockets for food, coffee cans, ammunition and other supplies. It is at the military training grounds at Paris that dogs are prepared for this service. Not only are these four-legged couriers taught to avoid the enemy and beware of traps, but also to crawl on their stomachs in order to escape flying bullets. Special meals are provided for these dogs when they must pass through a poison gas area.

Pearl Fisheries Need Government Aid

Must Leave Owners Reasonable Margin and Limit Export

Four-fifths of the world's output of pearl shell comes from Australian waters, but the war has hit the rosy-mantled business hard. Pearlers are getting considerably less for their product than three or four years ago before the great conflict began—notwithstanding the cost of operation and that of freight is far higher.

Most of the pearling fleet is laid up and the few boats that are at work at Thursday and Broome Islands in the South Pacific are in commission only to keep the hands employed. Before the war shellers at Broome on the West Australian coast and therefore on the Indian Ocean side of the continent got as much for shell as $150 a ton on the spot; but now the price has dropped to $550. This permits of no profits. This is a state of affairs far removed from that when four speed mens sold for $85,000 and another was obtained which is valued at $25,000. The story runs, among Australian pearlers that one of the Vanderbilt family paid $12,000 for a single stone.

By the term "Australasian pearling" is meant not only the Broome and Thursday Island pearl fisheries, but those in the Dutch East Indies, the Philippines, and elsewhere.

Meantime a commonwealth government commissioner appointed a few years ago to inquire into the possibility of introducing white labor into the pearling industry conducted in Australian territorial waters has after a long and exhaustive investigation drafted a report which will shortly be submitted to parliament. The chairman of the commission, Mr. Bamford of the house of representatives, said at Melbourne that the report would recommend that matters be laid largely as they are at present. That is to say, virtually that while men are not a success as pearl-divers.

James Clark, the "Australasian pearling" who owns thirty-five vessels at Broome and has a large interest in the Celebes Trading Company, which operates sixty-five vessels at the Aru Islands, Australia, and the Dutch New Guinea, explained that Thursday Island was formerly the headquarters of these boats, but that the commonwealth restrictions had made it necessary to place them under the flag of the Netherlands.

When both fleets were active—which has not been the case since the war—there was work for about 10,000 men, most of whom were Japanese, Malays, and Filipinos. The expenses totalled about $325,000 a year.

The only hope of keeping the pearling business permanent and profitable is continued work for the government to fix such a price for shell as to leave fleet owners a reasonable margin for their many risks and to limit the export.

How to Tell a Gentleman

If He Has Tassels on His Umbrella He Isn't, Says Butler

At one of the British ministries there is an attendant who has been a butler in Grosvenor Square and prides himself upon a certain instinct for distinguishing blue blood from the other varieties. Some ladies of the department were drawing him on the subject.

"Now, there's Mr. Jones," said one "Surely Mr. Jones is a gentleman?" "Ah! very well on the surface, miss," he admitted. "But he actually walked in the other day with tassels on his umbrella."

Absinth Now German Killer

In France the stocks of absinth, the banned liquor, are now being converted into ingredients for explosives at a co-operative distillery at Pontoise, which has been supplying clear alcohol extracted from beet roots to government explosive factories, where it is used in the manufacture of gun cotton.

Yacht Sinks U-Boat

Depth Bomb Accounts for German Pirate in English Channel

Details of the sinking of a German submarine by a British armed yacht in the English Channel are now available.

Just after sunset one day a call for help was picked up by the yacht, from the U-boat. The direction indicated, divers several steamers from the zone.

In the afternoon the lookouts sighted a periscope of a submarine which apparently was preparing to attack merchantmen approaching from the U-boat. The periscope was barely 150 feet from the port bow of the yacht.

Full speed was at once ordered and the yacht drove right over the submarine just as the periscope disappeared. A distinct jar throughout the yacht observed by the British sailors in the water and as he approached there appeared in the center of the disturbance a bubbling of water evidently caused by volume of air escaping to the surface. A third depth charge was dropped in the vicinity of the disturbance, which presently died away.

One survivor, covered with a thick coat of oil, was picked up. Every trace possible was done for him aboard the yacht, but it soon became evident he had suffered internal injuries. He died about three hours later.

Time Has Tested It—Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti

Eclectic Oil Has Stood the Test of Time

Time has tested it—Dr. Thomas' Eucalypti Eclectic Oil has stood the test of time upwards of thirty years and in that time it has proved a blessing to thousands. It is in high favor throughout Canada and its excellence has carried its fame beyond the seas. It has no equal in the whole list of liniments. If it were double the price it would be a cheap liniment.

Remarkable Operation Successful
An operation reported to have been performed under the direction of a surgeon, 1,800 miles away, saved a man's life in Australia recently. The patient, a man named James Clark, of the Celebes Trading Company, which operates sixty-five vessels at the Aru Islands, Australia, and the Dutch New Guinea, explained that Thursday Island was formerly the headquarters of these boats, but that the commonwealth restrictions had made it necessary to place them under the flag of the Netherlands.

When both fleets were active—which has not been the case since the war—there was work for about 10,000 men, most of whom were Japanese, Malays, and Filipinos. The expenses totalled about $325,000 a year.

The only hope of keeping the pearling business permanent and profitable is continued work for the government to fix such a price for shell as to leave fleet owners a reasonable margin for their many risks and to limit the export.

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.
Dear Sir,—I can recommend MINARD'S LINIMENT for Rheumatism and Sprains, as I have used it for both with excellent results.

NO HUMBAG ABOUT THIS CORN REMEDY

Will it cure quickly—yes, you bet it will and it's not by the root. It's a hurry. Most remedies hurt like blazes, but Putnam's Extractor is painless. It draws out the poison and the pain disappears instantly. Putnam's Extractor is a real cure, one can depend on, and costs but a quarter in any drug store. Why pay more for something not so good.

Hunger Sickness Takes Toll

Thousands of Victims Through Lack of Proper Food

The Amsterdam Telegraph is informed by returned Dutch workmen employed in Germany that influenza, which is called "hunger sickness" there, has killed thousands of victims, especially in the industrial districts of the country, because of weakness and exhaustion due to lack of proper food. In the industrial centres of Westphalia and the Rhine provinces there are many deaths daily. The hospitals are full of patients. Food rations are being constantly decreased. Fats can no longer be had, even by laborers who do heavy work.

The Berlin correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung says that in addition to needless wastes the present ration of 250 grams (8.75 ounces) will be reduced to 200 grams (7 ounces) a week in all towns having more than 100,000 inhabitants. New potatoes have arrived in Berlin and it is hoped to issue them at the rate of three pounds a week to each person.

No surgical operation is necessary in removing corns if Holloway's Corn Cure be used.

The Fighting Men

Let us acclaim the American soldiers of the present war, the British sailors, without whom Germany would continue to utter sarcastic remarks on the value and fruitfulness of the efforts of America. We already know, and will know better tomorrow, all that this menace means. The big success to which we are looking forward let us pay homage to the British sailors, those unseen and almost forgotten heroes who are guarding the seas for us.—Le Mid, Paris, France.

Peace Anyhow

"Germany," said Representative Mudd of Maryland, "thinks she'll get the peace she desires by some means—by any means—by victories, or by display, or by very much like the young lady who presented a check at the bank. The teller, after examining it, said: 'We can't pay this over the counter, miss.'"

"The young lady smiled her sweet smile, and said: 'I'll come round.'"

"Then," she said, "I'll come round."

Personal Conversation

The bulky man strutted into the shop and asked to be fitted for a pair of boots. After trying several pairs on he complained to the salesman that they were all too narrow and pointed.

"Excuse me, sir, but you know they are wearing narrow, pointed boots this season," explained the salesman blandly.

"That may be," grunted the bulky one, "but I am wearing my last season's feet!"—Branford Expounder.

About Milestones
Most people imagine milestones to be quite ancient institutions. They are not so really. The first milestones to be erected in England were set up on the Cambridge road between Barkway and Cambridge in 1727, and it was not until forty years later that their use became at all general. True there are two 'milestones,' so called, that bear the date 1700, still standing—one at Tadcaster, and the other near Whitton, Herefordshire. But those do not give the distances to the places graven upon them, being, in effect, therefor, merely stone sign posts.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot be Cured
by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is a result of inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and the tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh of the Eustachian Tube. Catarrhal Deafness is a curable disease. Consult Dr. J. C. HENNEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Artificial Eyes of Rubber

Will Not Irritate Socket and are Unbreakable

Glass eyes are notoriously uncomfortable and often unsightly. French workers aimed at producing a substance of sufficient elasticity and softness to respond to the changes in the eye socket and at the same time of sufficient hardness to present a smooth, natural effect between the eyelids. They solved the difficulty of constistence by making the front of the eye of hard cast rubber, vulcanized and enamelled to represent the natural appearance, and the back of the eye of soft caoutchouc, followed by a layer of a ball filled with air. These hollow eyes, have been found to answer the purpose very well. They are soft and elastic; they respond in a remarkable manner to the ocular movements; they do not irritate the socket; and they have the great additional advantage of being unbreakable.

Nationalistic War Names

In the English army there is a General French, a General Scott, a General Irish, General Welsh, General English and General St. German. They will probably have to wait for the Chinese to get a General Yan Kee, or for a Brazilian to give us General Can Hado.

War times are teaching us that there is no economy in buying the cheapest goods nor the fancy high priced ones. We are depending on the solid values of the good standard brands—the brands that were good in peace time and have doubly proved their worth in war time.

Live Roads

Great Responsibility Rests on Traffic Man

A marvel of the war road in France is the despatch rider, who manipulates his machine in and out of this mass with wonderful dexterity, in some cases extricating himself from apparently impossible positions, always taking life and limb with amazing "sang-froid."

Mounted patrols—both horse and cycle—are constantly on the alert, slowing and accelerating the columns to meet the demands of by-road traffic.

At each cross-roads stands the traffic man. Upon this individual rest great responsibilities. It is he who with a peremptory movement of the arm, momentarily holds up everything when giving precedence to a transport proceeding "line-ward." It is he who briefly answers the thousand and one questions regarding the positions of units, villagers, etc., in his locality.

Occasionally it happens that a vehicle breaks down. Immediately a score or so of willing "Tommys" are requisitioned who speedily remove the obstacle from the road.

The word "Block" is a dreaded one with all concerned in this important work. Every possible precaution is taken to ensure a free running of all traffic.

Thanks to a perfect system combined with the fixed determination of all users of the road, to get there and get there quickly, these blocks are few and far between.

Women Nurses

Seven hundred women are now working in Furness's extension yards in the north of England—waste land reclaimed by the sea—helping materially in the ship-building campaign. Work calling for a heavy expenditure of muscular strength is done by men in every possible case a fit man of military age is replaced by a woman. The women work in gangs as laborers and navies under foremen and "gangsters" who are also women. The work they are doing gives great satisfaction, and in preparing concrete for the platforms on which keels are to be laid they are said to be superior to an equal number of men.

Good Market for Whale Meat

Whale meat from the Pacific coast 20,000 pounds of it—recently has been put on the Boston market. The shipment was disposed of in ten days at a retail price of 15 cents a pound, and was received with such satisfaction by householders who like to live both well and economically, that preparations are being made to assure a regular supply. Some of the meat was sold as far north as Portland, Me.

Kitchener was right

when he said—

"Either the Civilian population must go short of many things to which it is accustomed in times of peace or our armies must go short of munitions and other things indispensable to them."

NOW, the only way we can possibly live up to that obligation is by going without in order that our soldiers may have. For the money we waste is not money at all—it is equipment, clothing, shot and shell that are urgently needed in France. By denying ourselves, therefore, we enable Canada to procure to the fullest extent the materials and labor which she and our Allies need for the successful prosecution of the war. What happens when we fail to save? A pull on labor by the Government in one direction and a pull on labor by the people in the opposite direction. Hundreds of millions of dollars are of no use to the country if goods and services can be secured only to the extent of eighty millions of dollars. So we must do everything in our power to release both goods and labor for the purposes for which Canada needs them.

WHETHER it be food, coal, wool, steel, leather, labor or transportation, the result in all cases is the same. Whoever competes with the nation by freely satisfying his own desires, selfishly appropriates to his own use that which is so urgently required for our fighting men in France.

For the sake of your country and the boys "over there," spend cautiously. Think of what Lord Kitchener has said, and ask yourself first, "Is this something I really need or can I do without it?"

dailies to get circulation at any cost. Along this line many suggest to eliminating wasteful circulation without crippling the newspaper.

Another line of policy relates to the size of newspapers. Recommendations have been made for reductions in size ranging from five per cent. in the case of small papers, to sixty per cent. in the case of large Sunday editions using more than 350 columns of reading matter comic features, etc. This would mean the eliminating, or reducing of many comic and other features and the condensing of news reports into shorter form. In other words, the competition between papers would then be one of quality rather than of matter printed.

The Canadian press in adopting these suggestions is following up its campaign to promote saving by practising it.

Edmonton Journal—

This is an extract from the report of the address given the other night by Capt. Comyn-Ching at the gathering held to welcome him as Edmonton military Y.M.C.A. secretary:

When a man is dying on the battlefield there is no time to ask him what church he favors before the chaplain does what he can for him. He hoped the time would come soon at home when the question would not be "does a man belong to this church or that," but "is he a Christian man?" That is what the men will look for when they return, and we want to prepare the way for them in this direction. Men who have got down to the rock bottom of things, who have stared into the face of death, will have no use for denominations jealousies and bickerings. They will come back expecting to find a broader, wider more comprehensive church which will include everyone and will not raise a barrier between one another.

This is the testimony given by hundreds of others who have had opportunities similar to those of the speaker of getting closely in touch with the thought of our fighting men on the serious problems of life. There was a strong tendency to get away from the old narrowness before the war. The influence of the returned men should prove irresistible.

Chicago Tribune—

Is there no end to giving! There is not—until the great end. The best line that any advertiser in the United States ever wrote was the line: "While some one gives his life, what are you giving! Think a minute!"

What are you giving, you who run loose and go about your virtually undisturbed affairs? What are you giving when you think a minute of the fellows who fight Germans and cooties, rats and trench fever, gas, shrapnell, mud and filth and endure atrocious suffering or miserable discomfort?

What have you given or what can you give? The demands upon your money do come rapidly. It is the way they have to come. It represents the pressure which must be put upon. Even this pressure is an indication of your own good fortune. You are here, being asked for your money but not your life.

This is the way in which the loose coin of the nation is shaken out of its pockets; the fashion in which loose habits are ironed out and community discipline imposed.

VIKING

A number of young people were over from Vegreville last Friday evening to attend the dance, among them was Ross Berdan formerly of the bank staff here.

The school children enjoyed an enforced vacation for two days last week on account of the fire grates in the furnace having to be sent to Edmonton for repairs.

A. Gould of the Lord Strathcona
Horse who left for camp last week

during the week.

Last Thursday evening H. Rol-

ed Lodge arriving home again in the sma' hours of the morning.

Threshing is pretty general throughout the neighborhood. The yield has been, wishes us to call the attention of a number of our local farmers will get their seed for next year.

The "honor roll" last week had in the name of Percy M. Mounded. Up to the present nothing has been received as to the seriousness of the wounds but here's hoping the best for you Percy.

A concert and dance will be held in the Echo school, October 13, commencing at 8.30, in aid of the Red Cross. Admission gentlemen
50 cents, ladies bring cakes, no icing. Good music, good singing, good dancing and a full moon.

Constable Maddison, of the provincial police, wishes to call the attention of auto owners that they are required to have two front lights and rear light on their cars, besides two number plates. Infractions will be prosecuted.

Premier Stewart was guest of honor at the annual exhibition at Viking on Friday and was to have formally opened the show, which was held on which he traveled down was some two hours late. However, Mr. Stewart gave a short speech, telling of his pleasure in being at the fair, and complimenting them on the number and quality of their exhibits. He also spoke briefly on some of the incidents of his trip overseas and his interest in the having a Red Cross drive,
to come back and give his lecture on his experiences in England and at the front in aid of those underneath.

Mr. Stewart said that his interest in agricultural projects was as great as before he had left off farming and he expected that if he left public life again he would go back to his farm at Killam. Although the frost had struck Northern Alberta pretty hard this year, the premier felt that the people of these districts still had much to contribute themselves. They had only received a temporary setback, and he felt sure that there was not a man who had been settled in that part of the country for any length of time who was not happy to have made that his choice.

Mr. Stewart then spoke of the fine show he had found in his trip to the front, none better could be found anywhere.
Viking exhibition nearly doubled its attendance this year. In fact, so large was the attendance and so many were the exhibits of live stock that it will be necessary another year to put on a two day instead of one day exhibition, as has been done hitherto. There were 250 horses shown in the ring,
most of them in the heavy draft classes,
and a good proportion of them purebred. There was also a good sprinkling of purebred light horses and some nice grade drivers and saddle horses.

The cattle entries numbered 130
and although the sheep and hog entries were not large, the quality was exceptional. On account of the frost, the display of grains and vegetables
was not up to that of other years.
The Vikings are also laboring under the disadvantage of not having any subsidy, but this will probably be remedied before next year, as a subsidy was started on the grounds
Friday for the purchase of a permanent grounds for the agricultural society. Should the grounds be obtained, the buildings will be erected and this will, in turn, attract more exhibits.

Judge Esau, of the heavy horses,
was judging up until dark. On account of the absence of the light horse judge,
Jas. Lambert, of the Mance Farming Co., was pressed into service for this part of the work. Wm. Sharpe, of Lacombe, was judge of the cattle, sheep and hogs; Thos. Daniels, of Rodino, of the vegetables, agricultural products and poultry; Mrs. G. A. Mc-Leod, of Vancouver, of the domestic exhibits; Mrs. C. G. Purvis, of Viking,
of the fancy work.

There was no one event of the day that created more interest than the baby show and competition. Ten babies, all good enough for prizes, were put into the competition, and
Dr. Hobson, of Viking, and Nurse
Halkier were given the responsibility of awarding the prizes. The mothers entering their babies were: Mrs. H. L.
Harvey, Mrs. Fred Hanson, Mrs. Hans
Hanson, Mrs. Simon Place, Mrs. W. P.
Goodwin, Mrs. A. Strait, Mrs. Angus
MacDonald, Mrs. P. Macpherson, Mrs.
R. Pitman, Ransbury, and Mrs. Neils Hafzo of Viking. There were just two prizes, the awards going to Mrs. Angus MacDonald for first place, and Mrs.
Fred Hanson for second place.

One of the entertaining features of the afternoon was a basketball game between the girls of Viking and Irma.
Viking won 21 to 4, but the game
was only won in the last ten minutes,
the combining work of the home team winning the day. Considering the fact that the Irma girls have a comparatively new club, the game
they put up was splendid. The lineup for Irma was: Miss Jones, Miss Lacombe, Mrs. Domes, Mrs. Simon, Mrs. Howarth, Miss Edmonds; and for Viking: Mrs. Hanson, Hazel Britton, Cora Stevens, Hilda Leary, Minnie Shoets, Nan Stocum, H. E. Corey, of Kilham, acted as referee and H. G.
Thunell, of Viking, umpire. The game was played on the school ground.
The day was brought to a splendid finale with a big dance in the evening.
For with the orchestra of Edmonton provided the music.

SCULLING WAS ONCE WORLD'S BIG SPORT

Boatbuilders and Oarsmen were Master of Craftsmen—Praise for the King of them All

Canada was once very prominent in the single sculling game and mainly through the work of Edward Hanlan. Of him James G. Rice, the great rowing coach once said: "I am anxious to have no record as holding that no man has yet equalled the achievements of Edward Hanlan of the "Island" in the game of rowing. I never saw a finer oarsman, I never met a straighter man. He met his opponents without fear or favor. He rowed under all conditions and in many countries. In the days when the sport produced the greatest men in its annals he fought his way to the top and held the crown for four years. In short—he was the best ever. In all the time that he was rowing, between 1874 and 1884, he took part in over 350 races.
It would be a hard task to tell of his victories, but it is a very easy one to tell of his defeats, for they were so few and far between. After being followed by Elliott at Barrie in 1879 he rowed a dead heat with old John Hay of Saratoga, and on his refusal to row over again the race was technically awarded to Jim. In 1880 he lost out in a regatta at Washington when he got a stitch in his side. His next defeat was the beginning of his downfall,
in 1884, when he made the trip to Australia and was beaten by Beach. The climate was too much for him there,
and he never again reached the heights he held previously, though he did row in competition as late as 1896.

"Straightest and Greatest"

Those were great days for the rowing game. Fortunes were wagered on the races, and, though many charges and countercharges of unfairness were hurled around, Ned Hanlan went through his entire career without a smirch on his character. At the time of his death The London Times said
editorially that he was the straightest and greatest oarsman that ever sat in a shell. He was the idol of all Canada, for he was the first Canadian to really bring the world's supremacy in any one line to the Dominion. I know personally that he was offered $20,000
to quit in a race for the world's championship. It was all he could do to keep from knocking even the man who made the attempt to bribe him.

The Great Professionals

It is well to remember that Hanlan fought his way to the front at the time when professional rowing was at its zenith. It was when such men as Wallace Ross, Jim Riley, Fred Plante-
ed, Charles Courtney, Jake Gaudreau, Erasmus Rogers, Pat Luther, Hosmer, Toomer, Trickett, Laycock, Lee, and other such scullers were in the field that the young Canadian flashed to the front and held his position for years. In those days scullers and boatbuilders knew things that have been long since forgotten or neglected. The boys used to test their shells with split-second watches to see which boats were the fastest under given conditions. They weighed them and balanced them and rigged them and watched them more carefully than most mothers do their children. A fraction of a second meant thousands of dollars to them, and they meant to have it.

A Good Farm

— IS WORTH GOOD BUILDINGS —

Any farm is good that provides a living for the family.
Comfortable buildings help to make a poor farm good and a good farm better.

Even the land that has been ruined and "turned to the Lord" may be brought back to life by the aid of live stock; but first you must have buildings and fences to make the live stock comfortable.

Each farm is shy a building or two, and most farms need more fence-
ing. Fences for range, health and pasture; barns and stables for storage and winter feeding.

If animals require all their feed to keep them alive and warm, then the grain is being burned for fuel, while the animals are marking time.
Time may not be much of an object to the animal, but it is to the owner.

Basketball Team Played Return With Fast Viking Sunbeams

Our basketball team was one of the attractions at the Viking Fair last Friday and played the fast Viking team before a large crowd of rooters who gathered to see the game. A loyal bunch of rooters accompanied the Irma team and let Viking know that they were all there too. At half time the score stood 4 to 0 in favor of Viking which was not much of a lead. In the last half Irma started out with a vengeance and landed two baskets in quick succession. This put everybody on edge and it looked as if Irma was going to win out, but the Viking forwards seemed to get a great streak of luck and every time they got the ball they made a basket. The contest ended with the score of 21 to 4 in favor of Viking, but is no indication of the well played game on both sides. Up to the very last our team played the game and it is this spirit that wins in the long run. There was good fellowship between the teams and our girls made a fine showing against a team that is reputed to be one of the best in Central Alberta. Stay with it girls, you are putting Irma on the map as a real live town.

The teams lined up as follows:

Irma: Forwards, Mrs. Howarth, Miss Irma Edmunds; Centres, Mrs. Dover, Mrs. Salmon; Guards, Miss Jones, Miss Lacombe.

Viking: Forwards, Nora Watkins Hazel Britton; Centres, Hilda Leary Cora Stevens; Guards, Nan Stocum, Minnie Sheets; Referee, H. E. Corey.
